

Vita Severin Böhm

The Tenor Severin Boehm, born in 1991 in Zwickau. He took acting lessons in Montreal and worked there as a singer in various stage productions. He then studied voice/musical theater with Christina Wartenberg at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater "Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy" in Leipzig. Since then, he has worked as a soloist on oratorio projects with various choirs, including the University Choir Halle, the Schwerin Vocal Ensemble and the Johann Rosenmüller Ensemble, as well as with orchestras such as the Staatskapelle Schwerin, the Jena Philharmonic Orchestra, the Collegium für Alte Musik Vorpommern and others, along with various choirs throughout Germany. In the context of the studio productions of the Musikhochschule he played Ola Pang in Turandot. He sang the tenor part in concert alongside Franz Grundheber in the Czech Christmas Mass by J. J. Ryba. Among other places, concert tours have taken him to Paris, where he sang the tenor part in the Requiem by W.A. Mozart in "La Madeleine".

His repertoire includes works such as the Petite Messe solennelle by G. Rossini, the St. John Passion, the Mass in B minor, the Christmas Oratorio, as well as various cantatas by J.S. Bach, Semele, Saul and Messiah by G.F. Handel, the Requiem and the Coronation Mass by W.A. Mozart, Oratorio de Noël by C.C. Saint-Saëns, Elijah by F. Mendelssohn-Bartholdy and the Mass No.2 in G major by F.Schubert. In 2020, Severin Böhm played Lucas Beineke in The Addams Family in the summer theater of the Comödie Dresden, in June 2023 the Prince in a children's version of E. Humperdinck's Sleeping Beauty at Hartenfels Castle in Torgau and since the end of September also Belmonte in Die Entführung, a version of Mozart's Die Entführung aus dem Serail, at the Taschenoper Lübeck. He currently resides in Leipzig.